

Winter Internship Program 2021

Desired Skills: Candidates pursuing under-graduation or has higher qualification with prior experience of journalistic work and knowledge of Migration and Diaspora related issues and familiarity with the current happenings around the world would be given preference.

The interns will be actively engaged in reporting of seminar, conferences, webinars and ongoing issues and discussions related to Migration and Diaspora. Selected interns will also conduct interviews with migration experts and prepare regular news related to global events and discussions.

Language: Proficiency in English

Benefits: Exposure to the vast class of intelligentsia around the globe and will be mentored in various Research and writing skills and a range of organizational skills that includes planning, monitoring, evaluation, management, coordination and administration skills.

Special Note: GRFDT promotes diversity.

Submit your application using following link: <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfgG2L2fD9iuav4ibtNVeWmAbvxRGXhY8tajeFlJjtQp8Pghg/viewform>

Application Deadline: 15 December 2020 (Midnight, GMT+ 5:30). In case of any difficulty, kindly write to internshipnew@grfdt.com

The Internship would involve unpaid voluntary homebased journalistic work for The Migration News Portal. A Certificate will be provided upon successful Completion of internship.